Call for Artists

LEXINGTON LifeTimes is a bi-annual creative arts journal published by the Friends of the Lexington Council on Aging to showcase the creative talents of seniors (age 60+) who live or work in Lexington.

We hope to inspire you to create artwork for the covers of our future Summer and Winter issues. Please note that the composition must be vertical, and the background must be white, without a hard straight edge. See samples of previous covers below.

Please use the attached template when planning your work. Check our website for deadlines, submission guidelines and the application form.
